

1866-AMERICAN SPORTSMAN'S SONG.
TO THE AMERICAN SPORTSMEN.

WORDS BY HENRY ALTENBRAND

MUSIC BY
C. MORTIMER WISKE.

SONG, 60 cts.

BROOKLYN, N.Y.

MARCH, 60 cts.

Published by GEO. MOLINEUX, 40 Fourth St.

To the Sportsmen of America.

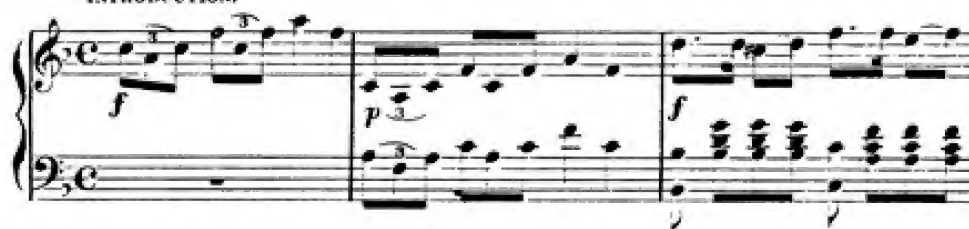

3

American Sportsman's Song.

Words by HENRY ALTENBRAND.

Music by C. MORTIMER WISKE.

INTRODUCTION.

1. How jol . ly the life of a sports . man gay, With his
2. He welcomes a sports . man with true de . light, And his
3. The fox is a poach . er, so is the man, Who Musical notation for the first system of the song. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in common time (C). The first staff contains the vocal melody with three lines of lyrics. The second staff contains the piano accompaniment, starting with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic marking. The system concludes with a series of chords.

rod and gun and faith . ful hound. The for . est he ram . bles hand in friend . ship he ex . tends. Hail fel . low, well met, so kills the game be . fore the time. The one we shoot when Musical notation for the second system of the song. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in common time (C). The first staff contains the vocal melody with three lines of lyrics. The second staff contains the piano accompaniment, continuing from the first system. The system concludes with a series of chords.

day by day, To seek the joys that in na - ture a bound. He gay and bright, Round the ro - yal spread loud laugh - ter he sends. Tis ever we can The other con - sign to a war - mer clime. To pro - brings down the birds that are swift of wing, When the young have flown the on - ly a sportsman who pleasure finds, In the woods and streams ne'er tect the game to de - tect the man, Is the aim of our club so no thers ripe. The deer and the hare to his cab - in he'll bring With the mind ing the toil. The sport is an i - dler he's not of our kind He strong and ground. We wish it all power and we'll do what we can To u.

quail the par - tridge the wood - cock and snipe hunts not for game, but on - ly for spoils nite it for ev - er and ev - er to stand

CHORUS *

SORANO
ALTO.

TENOR.
BASS.

PIANO.

Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! Tal . ly ho! O'er the field and the snow With his good dog by his side. f Ly . ing in a boat, ff Rea dy to shoot, When the his side

ff

* When sung by male voices 1st. Bass take alto part and 2nd Tenor Soprano part. 181 4 ducks in his stools do ride If the weather be cold Why better than gold Is the flask which he filled by the way And jolly is he Where

the way

ev-er he be, The sportsman so gal-lant and gay, so gay.

181-4